

Dear Poppy,

Welcome to the first Big Green Jewish newsletter of 2010.

With the UN Copenhagen Climate Conference over, 2010 is going to be a crucial year in ensuring that we turn the outcomes of the conference into a legally binding document. Our voices will be critical if we are to succeed in making this happen.

Read on for some of our green tips and how you can get involved!

The Big Green Jewish Website Team

So what happened at Copenhagen?

It is no secret that the ambitious deal that was needed at Copenhagen to ensure that the world's temperature stay below a maximum 2 degree rise did not come into fruition. Click here to read more.

Hazon Food Conference

The fourth annual Hazon Food Conference took place in California - bringing together farmers and rabbis, nutritionists and chefs, vegans and omnivores, to share, discuss, explore and learn about food, Jewish tradition and contemporary life.

Read articles and blogs following the conference here.

Tu b'Shevat

Tu b'Shevat 5770 falls this year on January 29-30. For further information and assistance with leading a Seder click here

Events : Pick of the month!

28/1/10 JCC Green Drinks: Discover what was actually agreed at the Copenhagen Climate summit and more about the JCC's "Do the Green Thing Campaign" and how to get involved. For more information click here

Follow us!

The Big Green Jewish Website is now on Twitter and Facebook and we'd like you to follow us!

